

Summer Reading Challenge

Read 30 minutes before you go to bed.	Write a list of healthy habits you can use next school year to stay safe.	Read a book that makes you laugh.	Turn on Closed Captioning and read while you watch TV or videos.	Read a book to someone and point out 5 emotions to discuss.
Read and follow a recipe.	Read a book to or with a friend or family member.	Research the history of your favorite sports team.	Make a list of your 10 favorite books.	Read the reviews of 6 movies you want to see.
Read or look through an art book or visit an exhibit virtually.	Read or look through a book about music or listen to a performance and write a journal entry about how the music makes you feel.	Have a race with family or friends to see who can write their times tables to 12 first.	Visit a BCPL virtual event or an author book talk.	Write an acrostic poem for the main character in a story you are reading, a topic you are studying, a favorite subject, or special interest.
Write your own story and read it to someone else.	Take 5 minutes to sit in silence and just breathe.	Read every word printed on your favorite snack food bag or container. Then look up the first five ingredients online.	Listen to a Destiny or BCPL audiobook.	Read a how-to book or article to learn how to do something new.
Keep a summer journal of what you are grateful for.	Read a nonfiction book or article on a topic that interest you.	Find a problem to solve in your home or neighborhood. Write a math word problem that would solve it.	Read a book or article about famous world records.	Read an instruction booklet or page for your favorite game or hobby.
